The A/W 14 collection of Breakbounce Streetwear was an appreciation of the urban-tribal aesthetic, representing a unity of creativity, expression and adventure. The collection comprises of knits, hoodies, jackets, t-shirts, chinos, cargos and denims in muted and earthy tones of green, blue, yellow, red, orange and greys. The AW '14 collection would soon be available on Flipkart.com and Myntra.com and will be available for purchase at retail chains like Central, Lifestyle Stores and Splash Fashions.

The collection was based on three trends viz. Man and Machine, featuring heavy duty clothing reminiscent of the industrial age, Tech-d Effect, capturing the beauty of imperfection by embracing distressed washes, over dyeing and acid distortions and Folklore, exploring the whimsical yet bohemian spirit of the '60s and '70s through ethnic tribal prints ombre dyes.
